

An art competition was held among the students, and they participated enthusiastically and came up with brilliant pictures.

Students showing their art work

The best three art works were awarded prizes. One of the volunteers, Bruce who works for Emirates Airlines distributed the awards.

Bruce handing out the prizes for the winners.

Adult development program- the staff are being trained.

Firoz, the Education Director talking to the staff in the adult development program.

The Parents meeting are held on a regular basis so that the teachers and the parents can work together for educating the children. The parents are counseled and taught to promote awareness.

Parents in the parents meeting.

Different types of social problems like early marriage, low regard for women, child labor are brought in the parents meeting. Students performed different types of cultural programs to educate illiterate parents.

Students staging a drama to promote awareness against early marriage.

Celebrating Bangla New Year (Nabo borsho, as called in Bangla) is a gala festival for Bangladeshi people. A spectacular fare was arranged where students and put up an excellent cultural show. Parents were invited to see what their children have learnt. At the end of the program we saw proud parents were bragging to each other how brilliant their children were doing.

A student wearing the traditional dress (sari) for celebrating Bangla New Year.

Kids eagerly watching the cultural show and clapping happily

Girls wearing yellow traditional dress as a symbol of the beginning of Bangla New Year

Students singing to celebrate New Year.

Teachers singing for the students.