IT WORKSHOP FOR TDP SCHOOL CHILDREN: An IT Workshop for the senior students of TDP School was held on 12/9/09 at the computer lab. Luke & Peter, two volunteers from AYAD (Australian Youth Ambassador for Development) took initiative to give fundamental computer literacy to the students. They taught them how to work with MS Office, especially, MS Word & MS Power Point. Read More

EYE-SCREENING AT TDP SCHOOL: The Dhaka Project is always concerned about the children health-care issues beside the academic lesson provided to the youngsters of The Dhaka Project School. Henceforth, an Eye-Screening session held on 12/9/09 at the school. Thanks to Jane, Daniel, Julie and to ICEE and AYAD for having taken care of our children's eyes. Read More

CREATING AWARENESS ABOUT SWINE-FLU & EYE-SCREENING: The program was a conscious contribution of Leo Club of Dhaka Heaven Plus as their part of Community Service Projects to the children of The Dhaka Project School. The main aim of the program was to create awareness and explain the ways to take precaution against Swine-Flu & perform a handy Eye-Screening session. Read More

CHULLI WATER TREATMENT SYSTEM: Information gathered during and after the delivery of a hand washing and hygiene program for all TDP school students indicated that many families are not boiling water prior to drinking as a routine. Some families indicated that this was due to time constraints and lack of money to purchase extra fuel for this purpose. For this reason the Health Care Team decided that a safe drinking water education program was needed for the families and guardians of TDP students. Read More

SCHOOL RESUME AFTER VACATION: The Dhaka Project School reopens today after 10 days of vacation with festive attire. At the school, hundreds of little souls are found chirping around wearing colorful dresses. Students decorated their own class with colorful balloons, festoons, stickers & ribbons; today they were allowed to act upon whatever their desire in guidance of the respective class teachers; they sang, danced and recited poems.
