

Welcome

The Dhaka Project is an organization which provides free education, health care and community support for nearly 500 children from the slums of Dhaka. The project is run entirely on donations. Please visit our website for more information.

COMMUNITY LAVATORY: Jorina is studying in STD-III at TDP School; she lives with her family near Gawair kazi Bari road. It's not their own house though; they built temporary residence at someone's land on payment. Three other families also stay around the place. What so shocking is, none of those families ever had a proper toilet facilities of their own! These families have been living there always suffering from diarrhea. Read More

COMMUNITY WEEK-LAST DAY: 'We will share what we have learnt' – keeping this message in mind, students of TDP School observed the day as "Signature Day" on 15th October 2009. Objective of the day was to identify illiterate individual and teach them to write their name as a signature in the register copies. We thank Dulce, TDP volunteer for promoting and encouraging the students. Read More

ABU HANIF'S ENGLISH SCHOOL !: A long time ago a student of The Dhaka Project, Abu Hanif, told me that he had a school of himself in his native village. I thought his English was not good and that he meant that he went to school over there. Sometimes he repeated his statement and even asked for help. Read More

MOVIE NIGHT: The Dhaka Project always tries to reach the children with excitement. After a brief discussion, a team is formed to give the children an experience to be remembered. What if we offer them a movie night!! We selected the roof of TDP School-senior section building as the place where the children could enjoy a movie. So, it's fixed on 8th of October at 6:00 pm.
