

Welcome

The Dhaka Project is an organization which provides free education, health care and community support for nearly 500 children from the slums of Dhaka. The project is run entirely on donations. Please visit our website for more information.

Fruit Distribution Day: Winter is preparing to take its leave - Spring peeping through the window - Children waiting --At last! Oranges were brought to give the taste of Vitamin C. Nazila Mohseni, Emirates Airlines Cabin Crew visited The Dhaka Project on 26 Jan. 2010 and took the pleasure of distributing Oranges among the TDPS students.

The student's joy knew no bounds. An orange in the palm of the hand at 11:00 a.m. was certainly the right time. It was probably the happiest day of the month.

Thanks to Ferre for the fund of fruit distribution.

Thursday, January 21, 2010 : As a regular part of fund raising activity, a "Cloth Sale for Fund Raising" was organized by The Dhaka Project on 16th January 2010 in an open field at Parayabagan, Majibari, Kazibari road.

Different types & sizes of clothes were on display for a very low price. Before the sale, an announcement held around. The community of Gawair was informed about the event a day before. Many people gathered to buy clothes according to their needs.

An amount of 783.00 BDT was raised from the sale.

The Cabin Crews of Emirates Airlines brought these clothes from Dubai through on flight to Dhaka. The Dhaka Project is always grateful to them and also to all the donors in Dubai.

Walk for Fund Raising in Scotland: Dawn Oconnor, Emirates Airline Crew organized and sponsored a walk in Scotland as a part of Fund Raising for The Dhaka Project. Though she couldn't take part in the Walk, her mother Elaine with along her sister and friends had a great day supporting the fabulous project. T-Shirts and Banner (photo of Dawn with few children) was provided by Dawn herself. A total of 1,670 GB Pound was raised for The Dhaka Project. Her families, friends and neighbours have been very generous giving money for donations, baby items, clothing, toiletries, books etc. Dawn is also keen to arrange such program in near future. We appreciate the idea of Dawn and thank her for the mammoth task of arranging such a program. As Dawn is so proud to be a part of our project, we are more proud to have a person like her.

Renowned humanitarian organization of Germany 'HELP' donated 5,000 euros to The Dhaka Project in December, 2009. A member of the 'HELP' organization visited The Dhaka Project in 2008 and found how the underprivileged slum children are nursed with a motherly affection. HELP not only sponsored four children along with a Volunteer Manager to visit Germany in October, 2008 but also decided to contribute to the welfare of the children. The trip to Germany for Student International Festival was a great experience. Students had an interview at Deutsche Welle Radio. They visited Bonn Theatre, Bonn Art Gallery, Botanical Garden of Bonn, Bonn University, Cologne Cathedral (the largest church in Germany), Chocolate Museum and enjoyed a river cruise in Rhine River. All the Children of The Dhaka Project wish a Big Thank You hoping 'HELP' will never forget them.
