Universal Children's Day 11th Nov. 2010

11th November 2010 is observed as Universal Children's Day throughout the world. It was a fun day for the students of The Dhaka Project School. A rally was held at 9:00 AM which proceeded Gawair School Road and ended at The Dhaka Project School.

All other programs were held on the roof-top of the school. Principal Parveen Sultana inaugurated the program and the day began with the Recitation from Quran by a student. All the students along with teachers and staffs sang the National Anthem, 'Amer Sonar Bangla' (My Golden Bengal).

Drawing Competition began from 9:30 AM. Students were divided into 4 Groups. Poem Recitation Competition for the elders and Rhymes Recitation Competition for play Group and Nursery section began at 10:30 AM. Music Competition (singing song) began from 10:30 AM. Dance Competition began from 12:30 PM. The Dance and Music Competition cheered up the students so much that they enjoyed ever bit of the show. Frequent clippings encouraged the participants too. Visitor Capt. David Ring and Capt. Stuart Vallance (Emirates Airlines) were present during the Dance Competition. Certificates were distributed among the 1,2 & 3rd position holders. A movie night was held at The Dhaka Project School roof-top at 6:00 PM.

Tare Jamin Per ----a Hindi movie was on screen..

It was really a happy day for the students of The Dhaka Project School

3rd Quarter Toiletries Distribution

2nd November 2010 was 3rd quarterly toiletries distribution day at The Dhaka Project School. The distribution program began at 10:30 A.M. Each student was provided with a soap, a tooth paste and a tooth brush. The distribution program was carried out by Mr. Azad and two staffs. This program helps the students to keep their teeth clean and enjoy a healthy health which is pre-requisite for higher School attendance. This also creates awareness among the students and makes it a regular cleaning habit. A few days back the students celebrated the Global Hand Washing Day. Now they are more conscious about their daily life. The students will brush teeth twice a day with toothpaste and wash their hands before eating, returning from toilet, finishing any work & if there is dirt. The students were very happy to receive the toiletries.
